'13 CAMPER OF THE YEAR is Mark Carlo!

Mark has attended Camp ASCCA for many years. Mark enjoys many of the camping session Camp ASCCA offers and always has a big smile on his face! He attends a summer camp session, the Fall Weekend, and then usually comes back for Christmas Weekend. After being presented with a "Camper of the Year" plaque, Camp Director Matt Rickman told Mark that he would be attending Camp ASCCA's Christmas Weekend free of charge as a gift for being named Camper of the Year. Mark, along with his parents Jim and Kay, were thrilled!

The Camp ASCCA Camper of the Year is chosen each year by our summer staff members. Mark and his family were joined this fall at a restaurant in Birmingham by 19 staff members.

Two Lodge Renovation Projects

We've been hard at work this fall continuing with the renovation work on Marc Roberts Lodge. The exterior is complete and work is underway with the eight bathrooms and bedrooms. Additionally, a new metal roof was placed on the Lions-Rotary Lodge as well as a new exterior, including new windows. Many thanks to our donors including the Alabama Elks Association, the Solon & Martha Dixon Foundation, Alabama District Pilot International, and the Montgomery Kiwanis Club.

Got someone HARD TO BUY FOR this holiday season?

Then send a campership or money towards a campership in honor of that “hard-to-buy-for” person!

Each year we give over $230,000 to campers requesting assistance in paying the summer camp fee. Giving a gift in honor of someone at the holidays is a great way to show love and caring.

Please consider making a gift this season.

Your tax-deductible gift will make a difference!

I would like to support the Camp ASCCA Campership Fund...
